Following category judging on Saturday the 18th, the selection of Grand Champions was overseen by judges Cristián Court, Julio Mohr, and Ernesto Forster. Aspirants Cristián Barrenechea, Patricio Muñoz, Rodrigo Millacura, and Luis Gustavo Torres served as stewards, while Rubén Navea acted as track secretary.

After opening remarks from Roberto Standen, president of the Federación Criadores de Ca-

ballos Raza Chilena, category winners took the field for the final selections.

The following champions, along with their respective reserves, were recognized:

Champion Colt: Pallocabe Bochorno
Champion Junior Stallion: Aguas Claras de Huelquén Delegado
Champion Senior Stallion: Santa Isabel Intruso T.E.
Champion Filly: Aguas Claras de Huelquén Fiesta Linda
Champion Mare: Remolino Matorral Purísima
Champion Senior Mare: Arcángel Gabriel Favorita

Next, Best Stallion Head was awarded to Santa Isabel Normando, and Best Mare Head to Alas del Cóndor Regálaleuna. In the group distinctions, the Breeding Farm Award went to Aguas Claras de Huelquén for its horses Curioso, Delegado, and Fiesta Linda; and the Sire or Family Award was given to Claro de Luna Caramelo for his offspring Borrasca, Cantero, and Profeta, from Rinconada del Monte Breeding Farm.

Intruso T.E., from Aguas Claras de Huelquén.

The judges favored Delegado, born on November 1, 2020, a son of Intruso and Santa Isabel Fantástica, bred by Agrícola Asturias Ltda. and exhibited by María José Vergara Peñafiel.

Herman Chadwick, owner of the Aguas Claras de Huelquén Breeding Farm, commented on this new title, following the one won by Intruso himself in 2023. "It was a perfect day. Delegado won Best of Breed, competing in the final against Intruso, his own sire. Though I have tremendous affection for Intruso and infinite gratitude for the exceptional offspring he's given our stud farm, as a breeder, this is exactly the outcome you dream of—producing a horse even better than his father. That makes me incredibly happy. I want to thank the entire team who works with me, especially Francisco Rojas, who's the heart and soul of this farm, and my family. We've worked hard to reach this point, earning more awards than we ever imagined, including Best Breeding Farm. My thanks also go to the Federation and Los Andes Association for this outstanding event," he said.

The event continued with the selection of the Grand Champion Mare, where Remolino Matorral Purísima faced Arcángel Gabriel Favorita.

The judging panel chose Favorita, born April 14, 2016, daughter of Santa Elba Comisario and Corrales de Piedra Rodaja. Breeder and exhibitor Juan Carlos Pérez Orellana expressed deep emotion at her victory.

"The emotion is overwhelming. About fifteen years ago, I was interviewed for the yearbook and said my dream was to become Chile's morphology champion. As I like to say—I envisioned it, believed it, and now I've achieved it. It's an incredible feeling, impossible to fully describe, especially with my entire family here. This mare is my granddaughter's favorite, and she's always brought us success. Now, she's topped it off by becoming the Champion of Chile," he said.

The National Exhibition concluded with awards presented to judges Cristián Court, Julio Mohr, and Ernesto Forster, as well as aspiring judges who served as stewards: Cristián Barrenechea, Patricio Muñoz, Rodrigo Millacura, and Luis Gustavo Torres.

The Calle Larga 2025 Performance Event Finals were held at the Pocuro Equestrian and Sports Center on January 17, 18, and 19, crowning national champions in Chilean Barrel Racing, Open Rein, and Cattle Sorting.

The first event decided was the Chilean Barrel Racing, with nearly 40 participants judged by Cristián Barrenechea and Alejandro Acevedo. The winners were Celeste Vergara riding Riberas de Cachapoal Descuido with 51.31 seconds in the Youth category;

Fernando Labarca riding Ña Fran Estrellón with 51.81 seconds in the Junior category; and Paulo Contreras riding Los Tacos de Rumai Referente with 50.25 seconds in the Adult category.

Celeste Vergara commented: "I was really excited to participate. It looked thrilling, and I couldn't wait to get here. We practiced a lot so my horses would perform well, and it paid off with this award."

Fernando Labarca said of his victory: "It feels amazing. I worked hard for this, trained consistently, and it paid off with my horse. I'm very happy about our win."

Paulo Contreras said: "I'm extremely happy. The competition was tough, with many strong pairs competing. This event keeps growing, and it was fantastic to see such a large audience and so many huasos embracing this discipline."

Open Rein

The Open Rein competition was judged by Acevedo and Barrenechea, accompanied by Diego Kort and María Eugenia Cristi, to define the categories: Children, Novice Horse, C, B and A.

In the Junior category, Argentine rider Guadalupe Otoya claimed victory with 34 points on Quimpomay Torero. The champion expressed, "I feel great. Thank you to Gastón (May) for lending me his horse. I prefer the 'rayada' (leg entry). The competition was really good. I dedicate this victory to Gastón."

The Novice Horse Category went to Matías Aliaga on Claro de Luna Escobilla with 33 points. "It's something I didn't expect. The mare is super new, she started recently and is just starting to mature. It's nice, I'm going to get more into this, because it's the second time I move," Aliaga valued.

Pilar Otoya, also Argentinean, won the Category C title, after scoring 37 points on Quimpomay Aladino. "I was surprised by the quality of the Chilean horses. I loved this experience; I am very happy with the result and I also want to thank Gaston May for lending the horses to my sister and me. I liked everything about Aladino", explained Pilar, Guadalupe Otoya's sister.

In Category B, Raúl Poblete claimed victory riding Paidahuén Recaída, totaling 46.5 points and securing the highest honor in Open Rein for the second consecutive year. "I'm extremely happy. It was a long journey, but the mare performed at her best. I feel great, and my family is my biggest support—they understand when I have to be away. I come from San Javier," commented Poblete.

Finally, in Category A for expert riders, Emmanuel Silva took first place riding Cantagua Agraciao with 56 points, pushing Argentina's Gonzalo Nievas on Santa Isabel Óptimo to second place with 52.5 points. "I'm very happy with the experience. This initiative is fantastic, the category was exceptional, and the competition was tough against my friend Gonzalo Nievas, who really gave me a challenge. I finished feeling great, thanks to the support of the people, my family, and my team," said Silva.

Cattle Sorting

The Los Aromos team successfully defended their Cattle Sorting title in an exciting final held on Sunday, January 19. The trio, consisting of Hugo Labarca on El Olival Encañao, Patricio Villar on Las Lomas de Ovale Antojada, and Paulo Contreras on Los Tacos de Rumai Referente won with a total time of 1 minute and 23 seconds, correctly sorting six cattle.

The second place went to Criadero Santa Ana, with Hernán Ramírez on Santa Ana de Collipulli Sultán, Juan Pereira on Santa Ana de Collipulli Sicario, and Andrea Castagnoli on Santa Ana de Collipulli Capitán General, finishing in 1 minute and 52 seconds, also sorting six cattle.

After the victory, Patricio Villar commented: "I'm surrounded by incredible teammates—lifelong friends, my trainer (Labarca), and a friend who rode a mare we bred at Las Lomas de Ovale. His son also performed excellently in his own team, alongside Hugo's son.

This is a team full of passion and determination. Paulo is also the Barrel Racing champion, so we are beyond thrilled and extremely happy."

Paulo Contreras expressed his excitement: "I'm beyond thrilled—I can't even describe what I felt out there. The first round was tough, the second improved, and by the third, everything came together perfectly. I want to thank my teammates, Hugo and Pato, because this is a team effort, and that's what makes it all worthwhile."

Hugo Labarca shared his thoughts: "It was a beautiful experience, and I'm really happy. Patricio invited us to compete—I had participated a couple of times before with my son, and things just fell into place. The first round wasn't great since we didn't manage to pen all three cattle, but in the second, things started improving, and by the third, everything worked out perfectly."

Before the competition, Valentina Campos and José Miguel Cacciuttolo selected Santa Ana Capitán General as Best Stallion and Quimpomay Colmada as Best Mare.
